

POINT-OF-SALE

custom made display, merchandising and point of sale products

With over 50 year's servicing Australian icons through to even the humblest small company Ace Wire is the right choice for all your wire display needs. We specialize in high impact display solutions for your brands and products.

Ace Wire's design service allows you to plan all aspects of your display and can work with you from concept to completion. We offer a wide range of complementing materials including signage and screen printing and you can choose from a range of colours in either powder coated or plastic coated finishes. Chrome, zinc, stainless steel and other plated finishes are also available.

Counter stands

We understand the challenges of available retail display space and with years of experience we can create compact, space-saving counter stands, suitable for merchandise and to display smaller items.

Floor stands

Our multifunctional stand-alone floor units are designed to suit your requirements and to attract your customer's attention. As with all our wire products we pride ourselves in their quality and durability and we are confident that these displays will stand the test of time.
